In Re:)
WRITS OF EXECUTION) ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
NO. _____

THE COURT Having reviewed the matter of Writs of Execution issued by the Clerk of the Court, and being fully advised in the premises, does hereby order as follows:

1. In child support cases an Affidavit of Amount Due must be filed, indicating the amount of arrearages that are unpaid at the time the writ is sought. This affidavit may be in one of the following forms:

- a. An Affidavit of Attorney may be filed, indicating the amount of arrearages due on behalf of his client;
- b. An affidavit from the recipient of the child support may be filed, indicating the amount of arrearages due;
- c. An affidavit may be filed by a child support officer, prosecuting attorney or attorney general, so long as that affidavit is supported by the certified payment record of the Clerk of the Court, indicating the amount of arrearages due, and an Assignment of Interest on the part of the recipient of the child support to that agency of the State. This affidavit shall also indicate that the person against whom execution is sought has personal knowledge of the existence of the Court order under which execution is sought.

2. All other rules relating to Writs of Execution shall remain in full force and effect.

Dated this 15th day of August, 1980.
